Welcome to the 28th Annual TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival

In the words of poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, "music is the universal language of mankind." At TD Bank Group, we believe music not only transcends language, but also connects the hearts of those young and old, near and far.

As we mark 10 years of sponsorship support for music festivals coast to coast, including this year's 2013 TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival, we are particularly proud to be The Bank of Music. Our commitment to supporting Canadian artists and engaging youth in music will help all Canadians discover and celebrate a Love of Music.

This event is possible with the shared commitment and love for music of dedicated volunteers and organizers, talented artists from Canada and around the world, and the thousands of music lovers who join us year after year. It is with your support that this incredible event is possible.

We couldn't be more thrilled that you've come to share in this celebration. For your love of music, we thank you.

A MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER OF CANADIAN HERITAGE AND OFFICIAL LANGUAGES

Our Government understands the importance of arts and culture to our communities, our identity and our economy. As we approach Canada's 150th birthday in 2017, we have a wonderful opportunity to celebrate everything that makes Canada such a remarkable country. This is why we are proud to invest in the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival, a celebration of music that gives all Canadians a chance to discover the creative energy of jazz. In so doing, the festival makes an outstanding contribution to Vancouver's cultural landscape.

On behalf of Prime Minister Stephen Harper and the Government of Canada, I would like to thank the organizers, volunteers, and performers who have helped make the 2013 TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival a success. I applaud your contribution to the cultural and economic vitality to this region.

The Honourable James Moore
Minister of Canadian Heritage and Official Languages

A MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

On behalf of Vancouver City Council and the citizens of Vancouver, I am pleased to extend my best wishes and to welcome you to the 2013 TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival.

This will be the 28th Annual TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival bringing us 11 days of pure musical enjoyment every year. We are very proud of Vancouver's reputation as a major centre for the performing arts and the Jazz Festival is a huge contributor to this designation. There will be 1800 musicians featuring up to 300 concerts at over 35 venues this year and I hope everyone tries to get a sample from as many as you can. As Mayor, I feel most privileged that they will share their talents with all of us, and I look forward to attending the festival with everyone.

Thank you to all the musicians, sponsors, organizers and volunteers for once again bringing this great event to the ears of Vancouver!

Your truly,

Gregor Robertson
MAYOR

A MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER OF COMMUNITY, SPORT AND CULTURAL DEVELOPMENT

Congratulations to the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival, now in its 28th year, for presenting the largest annual performing arts and cultural event in British Columbia.

For many years, the B.C. government has proudly supported this significant festival with funding through the BC Arts Council and community gaming grants. This year our government will provide $163,750 to the Coastal Jazz & Blues Society to help continue this great celebration of jazz.

As always, the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival offers exciting, world-class music on a grand scale, with 1,800 artists performing up to 300 concerts at more than 35 venues.

Many B.C. musicians will enjoy opportunities to market their talent, build their careers and make connections with other artists from across Canada and around the world.

The festival represents a top-notch attraction for Vancouver, entertaining over 560,000 people each summer. With over $35 million in economic activity generated across the Lower Mainland, the festival supports jobs in the service and tourist sector, as well as boosting revenues for local businesses.

All British Columbians can take pride in the festival for bringing people together to enjoy marvelous jazz performed by outstanding musicians. Organizers and volunteers deserve our thanks for their hard work and dedication.

Best wishes to the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival for continued success in the future.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Bill Bennett".

Bill Bennett
Minister of Community, Sport and Cultural Development

A MESSAGE FROM THE BC ARTS COUNCIL

As Chair of the BC Arts Council, I am pleased to welcome you to the 28th annual TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival.

For the past 28 years, the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival has delighted audiences with outstanding jazz, blues, world, creative and improvised music. This eleven-day music festival showcases the amazing talents of British Columbian, Canadian, and internationally acclaimed musicians. These fantastic musicians engage, inspire and entertain over 500,000 attendees each year.

The BC Arts Council is pleased to support this wonderful celebration of jazz, and is grateful to all the performers, organizers, volunteers and fans that make the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival an annual cultural highlight for British Columbia.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Ken
Pickering
Artistic Director

Welcome 2013

This 28th edition of the festival holds steadfast to our creative vision of actively cultivating and making a meaningful contribution to the global jazz community through intelligent, thoughtfully researched and curated programs. From its inception, Coastal Jazz has focused on the celebration of jazz and creative improvised music in all of its global manifestations, representing the current state of the art in balance with popular, yet related, music in one singular event.

While the digital age of the past decade has seen the paradigm of the music "business" change dramatically, jazz continues to evolve with the times and many consider this era to be a new golden age. The festival promises to be an inspired 11 days.

We're thrilled to present one of the greatest jazz pianists of all time: the legendary Herbie Hancock (founder of International Jazz Day – April 30th). He's bringing a crack quartet to the party!

The Vogue Series (9pm) is stellar. Grammy award winning singer / bassist Esperanza Spalding finally makes her first appearance with us; world music sensation Red Baraat (the buzz band at SXSW2013) will rock their north Indian bhangra rhythms on a double bill with Gordon Grdina's excellent Haram. We're also very excited about contemporary jazz legend David Murray's Infinity Quartet featuring the utterly unique vocals of Macy Gray. The comeback stories of seasoned rhythm and blues belters Bettye Lavette and Lee Fields prove that classic soul resonates with a new generation of listeners. The fantastic "Locked Down" (produced by Black Keys Dan Auerbach) reinvigorates Dr. John and claims a Grammy in this year's Blues category.

The early night (7:30pm) series at Performance Works offers a potent start to festival evenings. Pianist Vijay Iyer has emerged as one of the most daring jazz artists of his generation, capturing the attention of the jazz press with an unprecedented winning of five categories in the 2012 Downbeat Critics poll. Also featured in the Series are the Afro-Caribbean sounds of the UK's Courtney Pine; singers Gregory Porter and Youn Nun Nah are taking the jazz world by storm; Patricia Barber presenting some of her finest work to date; ace guitarist Kurt Rosenwinkel returns for his first festival appearance in many years and a Quincy Jones discovery, Cuban pianist Alfredo Rodriguez will surprise us all!

The 22 concert Innovation Series at the Ironworks and the Roundhouse provide an overview of what's current on the creative edges of the global jazz scene featuring artists from Canada to Brooklyn and beyond. Mind-blowing saxophonist Colin Stetson (Bon Iver, Arcade Fire, Mats Gustafsson) has a solo set at the Venue (celebrating New History Warfare Vol. 3) and collaborates with local hero Gordon Grdina's Trio (Dan Mangan, Haram, The Crackling). The centerpiece of this year's "Spotlight on French Jazz" is the French American Peace Ensemble and Didier Petit's East-West Ensemble. "Made in the UK" also returns with the "do not miss" Phronesis, considered to be among today's most imaginative and exciting piano trios. Bands led by drummers Alan Jones (a knockout Canadian Sextet) and Tomas Fujiwara (representing the cream of the new Brooklyn scene), along with Tim Berne's Snake Oil (ECM) are a must for adventurous jazz fans. We're shining a small spotlight on Chicago with the Jason Adasiewicz Sun Rooms and Norwegian pianist Christian Wallumrod plays the festival for the first time.

Our bookend free weekends Downtown Jazz (an incredible success in its inaugural year) and David Lam Park Jazz offer a plethora of music, arts, bistros, kids' activities and much more, and along with our free programs at Granville Island, including Canada Day, are not to be missed. We'd also like to recognize notable partnerships and collaborations with New Forms, Hard Rubber Orchestra, Western Front and Music BC.

In the past year we've lost many friends in the international jazz community, but none hit closer to home than the loss of Vancouver's Ross Taggart, to whom we dedicate this year's festival.

Let's converse about the roots of Jazz

Many musicologists argue that jazz is native to North America. Others like Abdullah Ibrahim, a South African jazz musician and composer, contend that jazz is an African musical form that working Africans used to articulate their worldviews. As such, it was this connection to the earth that caused the African slaves toiling away in the USA to express their experiences through the musical forms that have come to be known as jazz and the blues. Admission is free.

Afternoon Piano Sessions at The Ironworks Studios

June 25 - 28 @ The Ironworks Studios 5pm FREE

Designed to highlight some of the diverse composition, improvisation and performance techniques utilized by a selection of the leading pianists on the creative music scene in B.C., the aim of this exciting new series is to connect jazz luminaries from this region to a large and inclusive audience, which includes emerging jazz artists, and music students.

These interactive concerts will focus on duo and trio performances and will include a lecture/demonstration element facilitated by four of the most inspiring pianists in BC, including Paul Plimley, Jillian Lebeck, Chris Gestrin and Cat Toren. The groups selected represent a broad range of approaches to piano performance. Don't miss this exciting opportunity to discover the inner workings of: Heart Song Art Song: Kate Hammett-Vaughan and Jillian Lebeck, Cat Toren Trio, Crowman and Paul Plimley/Tommy Babin Duo.

We gratefully acknowledge the financial support of the Province of British Columbia.

A longstanding leader and passionate advocate for music education programs for youth and professional artists, we offer diverse and innovative free programs ranging from public workshops with international visiting artists, invitation only professional Master Classes, music residency programs for youth, performance opportunities for youth and emerging artists, special children's programs, and more. GATEWAY THEATRE

July 1 Granville Island - Public Market Stage @ Noon Free

An ensemble of blending opposites, 4=4 marries elegance and grit, soft subtleties and forceful crashes, melodious harmony and crunchy dissonance. Led by Juno-nominated violinist Meredith Bates (Pugs and Crows) this unique blend of modern jazz and indie rock features emerging Vancouver creative lights Tom Wherrett guitar, James Meger bass, Andrew Millar drums.

Jason Adasiewicz Sun Rooms with François Houle

June 30 Innovation Series – Ironworks Late Night @ 11:30pm $12

"This trio can swing hard, yet the music remains a warming wash of tones and resonances" — All About Jazz

First-call Chicago musicians Jason Adasiewicz Sun Rooms shares some of the directness of Chicago jazz, but fans of the Windy City's post-rock scene (Tortoise) will also be drawn to the textural sounds from a very physical vibraphone player using blurred overtones to create ambient harmonies over the cool, driving rhythm section of bassist Devin Hoff and Mike Reed drums (Nicole Mitchell, Jeff Parker). They're joined for the encore second set by one of Canada's top shelf improvisers, Vancouver clarinetist François Houle, himself a master of melding overtones to create next-level harmonic textures.

Gabriel Alegria Afro Peruvian Sextet

June 29 David Lam Park Stage @ 5:15pm Free

Peruvian trumpeter Gabriel Alegria presides over sizzling group interplay and lyrical, modern jazz takes on the African-influenced music of coastal South America. With Latin jazz all-stars Laura Andrea Leguía saxophone, Yuri Juárez guitar, Freddy "Hurvito" Lovatón percussion, Shirazette Tinnin drums/cajón. Thanks to Jazz Peru International, Saponegro Records

Julian Arguelles Quartet

See "Made in the UK" page 56.

Marc Atkinson Trio

June 22 Downtown Jazz - Robson Stage @ 1:30pm Free

Technical and sensual, the award-winning and critically acclaimed acoustic guitarist Marc Atkinson masterfully manipulates the warmth and punch of acoustic instruments in his dazzling trio featuring Brett Martens rhythm guitar, Joey Smith bass. Their unique take on Django jazz, Spanish guitar flourishes, classical music, and roots is "pure playful and tuneful pleasure." (Jurgen Goethe, CBC)

Aunts and Uncles

June 29 Granville Island - Public Market Stage @ Noon Free

"This is Baroque Indie Pop at its best!" — CBC Radio 3

Accessible but intricate, this charmingly artful quartet makes energetic and romantic music using drums, glockenspiel, ukelele, violin, keyboards, baritone guitar, and their unique voices. They've shared stages with Dan Mangan, Ladyhawk, Efterklang, The Luyas, and more.

B Funk

July 1 Granville Island - Railspur District Stage @ 12:30pm Free

Vancouver's B-Funk is a down and dirty instrumental Hammond organ-led quartet. Bumping 60's and 70's funk and soul, shades of Booker T and The MGs, Jimmy Smith, and Medeski, Martin & Wood, plus a booty-shaking collection of deep grooves will keep your juices flowing!

Tommy Babin's Sendero Luminoso

June 30 Roundhouse - Exhibition Hall @ 2:30pm Free

One of the most dynamic bassists in Canada, Tommy Babin is known for his fiery, thoughtful work with Benzene and The Gordon Grdina Trio. Sendero Luminoso explores Pan-American and revolutionary music of the 60's and 70's, with Bernie Arai drums, David Sikula guitar, JP Carter trumpet.

JUNE 28 Ironworks (Paul Plimley/Tommy Babin Duo) @ 5:00pm Free

JUNE 29 Roundhouse (Tommy Babin workshop) @ 1:30pm Free

BADBADNOTGOOD

June 23 Downtown Jazz - Georgia Stage @ 5:15pm Free

BBNG are blowing up! Didn't you get the tweet? Tyler the Creator (of infamous hip hop collective Odd Future) gave a big shout out to Toronto's BADBADNOTGOOD, and their post-bop hip-hop medleys went viral on YouTube. They've since recorded with Tyler himself, who proclaimed their session "the coolest thing ever."

Patricia Barber Quartet

June 28 Performance Works @ 7:30pm $35 + SC

"Conspicuously literate and restlessly inventive" — The New Yorker

Pianist/vocalist/songwriter Patricia Barber plots a sure-handed course along the dividing line between evocative and provocative. Born into music (her father was in Glenn Miller's band), hers is a dusky and atmospheric take on poetic jazz and blues. Known for her inventive lyrics and in-depth themes (she once spent 10 days with physics texts to help write a song about how an actual star is born), she's as attentive to her prodigious piano skills and the highly affecting nuances in the warm ache of her inviting low-register voice. With Dave Miller guitar, Matt Ulery bass, John Dietymer drums.

Tim Berne's Snakeoil

June 30 Innovation Series - Ironworks @ 9pm $25 + SC

Alto saxophonist Tim Berne's gritty, tough sound and next-level compositions that are featured on his current ECM recording Snakeoil had many critics placing the disc on their best of the year lists. Snakeoil signals a return to Berne's rare ability to channel rigorous structure while still breathing the rarified air of freedom in his playing. Joined by drummer Ches Smith (Mr. Bungle, Marc Ribot), clarinetist Oscar Noriega (Jim Black), and pianist Matt Mitchell (Dave Douglas, John Hollenbeck), these meticulous craftsmen and artful improvisers take music far beyond the written page and into an expressive, magical sonic territory of exhilarating textural shifts, modular grooves, and serpentine, brain-twisting melodies.

Saul Berson Trio

June 23 Granville Island - Public Market Stage @ Noon Free

"This is definitely not your average jazz band so be prepared to hear something new" — ejazznews

Delivering a unique sound that melds Middle-Eastern overtones, Argentinean tango, and jazz improvisation, the Saul Berson Trio lays down an engaging and impressive musical statement with an array of original compositions and select standards.

Bessie & the Back Eddies

June 29 David Lam Park Stage @ 1:45 pm Free

The Kootenays' finest brash and sultry 7-piece swaggering Show band will make you smile real wide—and maybe blush a bit—as their sassy big band-influenced take on burlesque classics, old-school R&B, soul and blues gets your hips shaking and your soul fires burning!

David Blake Quartet

June 22 Granville Island - Public Market Stage @ Noon Free

Stunning originals and expansive improvisations from this quartet of emerging Vancouver jazz talents. Led by David Blake's vibrant, expansive guitar, Vancouver's jazz future is looking very rosy in the hands of this great young band featuring Brent Mah saxophone, James Meger bass, Andrew Millar drums.

Michael Blake's Variety Hour

Hailed for his "panoramic imagination" (New York Times), New York saxophonist Michael Blake returns to his Vancouver roots with a smoking band of West Coast creative monsters, including JP Carter trumpet/electronics, Chris Gestrin keyboards, Dylan van der Schyff drums. From bebop to Blake's diverse, dreamlike originals, this is a can't-miss homecoming! Check out his Songlines disc Variety Hour.

Boi Akih

June 23 Performance Works @ 1:30pm Free

This idiosyncratic and compelling Amsterdam-based group somehow melds classical Indian, Indonesian and African traditions, reflective pop, and that unique strain of Dutch avant-jazz to exciting, artful ends. Monica Akihary croons passionately in the Haruku dialect of the small Indonesian Maluku Islands, with Niels Brouwer guitar, Kim Weemhoff drums and the amazing ICP Orchestra trombonist Wolter Wierbos.

Thanks to Netherlands Fonds voor Podiumkunsten, Netherlands Fund for the Performing Arts.

John Boutté with Steve Dawson and the Black Hen Music Band

June 28 NSCU Centre @ 8pm $32/30 + SC

John Boutté is from a seventh ward Creole family in New Orleans, going back eight generations. Boutté's musical tastes delve into a diverse amalgam of styles encompassing torchy jazz, aching soul, and traditional gospel. Influenced by the soul music of Stevie

Wonder and Marvin Gaye, coupled with the modern jazz of Paul Babarin, Louis "Big Eye" Nelson, and Danny Barker, he has performed with Paul Sanchez, John Scofield, and Trombone Shorty. The theme song for HBO's critically acclaimed series Treme is composed and performed by Boutté. He will be joined by Steve Dawson guitar, Keith Lowe bass, Chris Gestrin keyboard, Geoff Hicks drums, Daniel Lapp violin/trumpet.

Bow and Antler

June 26 Granville Island - Public Market Stage @ Noon
Free

Inviting melodies, sweet harmonies, and frolicking string fun are the hallmarks of Bow and Antler. Down-home bowing, classical textures, Eastern European flavours, jazz, blues, and film music all come together in this heart-swelling indie-folk duo of Melissa Bandura violin/guitar/vocals and Mimi Mahovich bass/vocals, plus guest Melissa Hammer trumpet/keyboards.

Dalannah Gail Bowen

July 1 Granville Island - Railspur District Stage @ 3pm
Free

"A perfect blues storm" — Roots Music Report

A powerhouse blues vocalist through and through, Dalannah Gail Bowen's versatile pipes can raise the roof with raw, stomping blues, but can also draw an audience close with what the Vancouver Sun calls "beautifully sultry interpretations" of sophisticated jazz classics and spirituals.

Continuing the pursuit of pleasure.

Alberto Braidà & François Houle

June 30 Roundhouse Performance Centre @ 3:15pm $5

Italian pianist Alberto Braidà has worked with international improv masters such as John Butcher and Wadada Leo Smith. Here he's joined for wonderfully transcendent and highly intense interactions with one of Canada's leading creative musicians, Juno nominee François Houle, "a spectacularly versatile clarinetist who appears to have no limitations stylistically or sonically." — (LA Times)

Thanks to Italian Cultural Institute, Vancouver.

Braveheart

June 22 Jazz at Canada Place @ 4pm Free

Rugged but uplifting, this is some seriously potent, next-generation modern jazz. Reflective acoustic jazz, exhilarating swing, and a remarkably psychic, playful sense of sonic structure and group interplay featuring emerging Canadian jazz stars Omar Amlani drums/percussion, James Meger bass, Ted Crosby saxophone/clarinet.

Buckman Coe

June 30 David Lam Park Stage @ 3:30pm Free

Best Unsigned Band runner-up in this year's Georgia Straight Reader's Choice Awards, Buckman Coe's brand of contemporary conscious roots rock is deep, life-affirming and inclusive. Reggae grooves, folk funk, uplifting harmonies, and a band of Vancouver jazz and pop all-stars keep the vibe flowing.

Jared Burrows Sextet

July 1 Granville Island - Ron Basford Park Stage @ 5pm Free

Jared Burrows' incandescent, spiritual guitar explorations take modern jazz to dizzying heights of beauty while laying down some seriously fiery grooves! His top-shelf sextet features jazz stalwarts Dave Robbins (Denzal Sinclair) drums, Brent Gubbels bass, Steve Kaldestad saxophones, Chris Davis trumpet, Dennis Esson trombone.

Wil Campa y su Gran Union

June 29 David Lam Park Stage @ 8:45pm Free

For those who like their salsa muy caliente! Charismatic Cuban vocalist Wil Campa leads his sizzling 11-piece band of merry musicians through festive Afro-Cuban music perfect for a hot summer's night. The band's last Festival appearance was a triumph of all-out dance revelry the Georgia Straight called "Caribbean party fever!"

A.W. Cardinal Trio

July 1 Granville Island – Ron Basford Park Stage @ 2:30pm Free

Delta blues, old time jazz, ragtime, and Django Reinhardt all find a home in this raw trio led by guitarist/vocalist A.W. Cardinal, a Metis Albertan who cut his teeth in the jazz clubs and crowded bar rooms in Montreal and New York City. With Jasmine Colette Ohlhauser bass, Mallory Temple drums.

JUNE 30 Granville Island – Public Market Stage @ Noon Free

Jon Cleary

June 26 NSCU Centre @ 8pm $30/28 + SC

A native Brit, singer/pianist Jon Cleary has adopted New Orleans as his home and his sound. His music fuses island rhythms, soul-funk jams, Latin grooves, and soulful ballads. Described by Bonnie Raitt as the "ninth wonder in the world," he has toured with her since 1999, appearing on both her Silver Linings and Souls Alike recordings. His latest album Occapella! (2012) is a tribute to Allen Toussaint. He has recorded with Taj Mahal, Keb Mo and India Arie, and toured recently with Dr. John. Cleary's last show in Vancouver was with John Scofield's Piety Street project at the TD Vancouver International Jazz Festival in 2010.

Meredith Coloma

June 23 Jack Loucks Court/John Braithwaite Centre @ 1pm Free

Local singer-songwriter Meredith Coloma merges ska, reggae, rock, and gypsy sensibilities in her collection of pop-inspired original songs. A multi-talented artist Meredith is also a master guitar maker, apprenticing under Roger Sadowsky in New York who has built guitars for Keith Richards, Gilberto Gil, and Bruce Springsteen.

Coat Cooke Quartet

July 1 Performance Works @ 2pm Free

Founder and leader of the legendary NOW Orchestra, saxophonist Coat Cooke blends visceral improvisations with daring compositions and charismatic leadership. He's collaborated with George Lewis, Claude Ranger, Barry Guy, and a host of other jazz greats. His exciting new band features Joe Poole drums, Chad MacQuarrie guitar, Karlis Silins bass.

Bill Coon Trio

June 29 Jazz at Canada Place @ 4pm Free

Juno-nominated guitarist/composer Bill Coon's music is intimate, conversational, and virtuosic. A Canadian jazz icon and a master improviser, he's performed with Jimmy Heath, Dr. Lonnie Smith, k-os, and more. His trio with Jodi Proznick bass and Bernie Arai drums plays Coon's original tunes, Brazilian music, and creative arrangements of standards.

Erin Costello

June 23 Downtown Jazz - Georgia Stage @ 2:15pm Free

"The melody-driven mood-maker is in a league of her own."

— The Coast

Taking a deliciously nostalgic cue from old soul, 60's vocal groups, and great tunesmiths like Burt Bacharach and Randy Newman, Halifax-based Erin Costello vocals/piano has a remarkable knack for laying her smooth baritone over some swaying, timeless instant classics.

Thanks to Nova Scotia Department of Communities, Culture and Heritage through Music Nova Scotia's Export Development Program.

Dylan Cramer Trio

June 21 Jazz at Canada Place @ 4pm Free

Saxophonist Dylan Cramer's intense dedication to his craft has resulted not in a showy display of chops, but rather in a beautifully controlled, less-is-more, almost narrative eloquence. His sumptuous trio plays masterful interpretations of classic standards, Latin tunes, and bluesy ballads.

Sean Cronin's Very Good

June 29 David Lam Park Stage @ Noon Free

Explosively imaginative, wildly inventive, and sincerely whimsical with influences ranging from Björk to Johnny Cash to bedroom folk to Duke Ellington! With Sean Cronin bass/piano/vocals/banjolele, Evan Arntzen (October Trio) woodwinds/vocals, Meredith Bates (Pugs & Crows) violin/viola/vocals, Tom Wherrett, Noah Walker guitars/vocals, Andrew Millar, Sam Cartwright drums/vocals.

Crowman

June 27 Ironworks Afternoon @ 5pm Free

Seamless, effortless improvisations move freely in and out of familiar tunes, weaving together inventive electronic sounds, subtle melodic fragments, ambient textures, and classical innuendos with nostalgic songs that make you tap your toes and smile. Crowman is Meredith Bates on viola and effects, Chris Gestrin on synthesizers and electronic gadget wizardry, and Ben Brown on drum kit and other percussive devices.

Alex Cuba

(Double Bill with Michael Kaeshammer)

June 21 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $35/$30 + SC

"His trademark sugar-cane-sweet melodies, pop-soul hooks and rock chords subtly subvert commonly held notions of what Cuban music is. Alex is on the vanguard, crafting a cross-cultural sound that mirrors his geographical journey... {he} is defining his own 'Latin Soul' genre." — CBC Music
Ok, let's just come out and say it: guitarist/vocalist Alex Cuba will one day be on our postage stamps! Multiple Junos, a Latin Grammy, and hits with Nelly Furtado are just the beginning for this ascendant BC-based Cuban funk/folk star. Dazzling guitar work, an arcing tenor voice, and a sizzling band with David Marion bass, Max Senitt drums.

Destroy Vancouver

Co-presented with VIVO Media Arts Centre

VIVO
MEDIA ARTS CENTRE

June 29 Innovation Series – Ironworks Late Night @

11:30pm $12

Destroy Vancouver is an experimental music series created by drummer/sound artist John Brennan. Destroy Vancouver focuses on local and international experimental musicians from the drone, DIY, electroacoustic, free jazz, and noise punk scenes. This edition features William Hooker, Psychic Tuberculosis (PTB) Dave Chokround solo bass, and V. Vecker sax. New York based drummer William Hooker's kinetically charged, free-time drumming style has been matched with some of the finest improvising talents including Billy Bang, Thurston Moore, and Lee Ranaldo. PTB are a three piece improvisational project drawing on influences as diverse as free jazz, no wave, noise, and blues; John Brennan drums, Trevor Rutley synth, Jacob Hardy vocals.

Fatoumata Diawara

June 24 NSCU Centre @ 8pm $30/28 + SC

Breakout Malian singer/songwriter Fatoumata Diawara (AKA Fatou) mixes jazz, pop, and funk along with her ancestral Wassoulou tradition. Fatou sings of love, politics, and empowerment with delicate melodies and intricate guitar and drum arrangements. The Telegraph calls Fatou "the most beguiling talent to hit the world music scene in some time," and Mojo calls her a "spell-weaving new voice." Diawara has become an outspoken advocate for peace in her home country; she has gathered over 40 of Mali's most popular musicians to record a song and video, "Mali-ko (Peace / La Paix)," a call for peace in the region.

Distant Relatives featuring Alfred 23 Harth and Dylan van der Schyff

June 21 Innovation Series – Ironworks Late Night @

11:30pm $12

German-born bassist Torsten Müller creates dramatic, expressive music using knotty plucks, audacious arco bowing, and a wide vocabulary of extended technique. An integral part of Vancouver's improv scene for over a decade, he's joined in adventurous sonic exploration by two powerful improvisers. German mixed-media artist and multi-instrumentalist Alfred 23 Harth has collaborated with Einstürzende Neubauten drummer FM Einheit, Japanese avant godfather Otomo Yoshihide, and Massimo Pupillo (Zu). The always riveting Dylan van der Schyff brings a sense of deep textural and structural exploration to the drums. He's worked with Dave Douglas, John Zorn, and scores of master musicians.

Dr. John & the Nite Trippers

June 26 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $50/45 + SC

He's the living embodiment of New Orleans music. Multiple Grammy winner Dr. John (Mac Rebennack) belongs to a continuum that stretches from Louis Armstrong to Wynton Marsalis to the Neville Brothers. Growing up, he absorbed all the traditional sounds of the Big Easy—blues, funk, gospel, R&B, barrelhouse and boogie, jazz, Creole voodoo—you name it. Along the way, the flamboyant and hypnotic keyboardist/vocalist worked with Bob Dylan, Aretha Franklin and Eric Clapton. Now, fresh off a Grammy win for Best Blues Album (Locked Down), our legendary Nite Tripper's six-piece band is set to dazzle audiences with a blend of voodoo mysticism, funk, R&B, psychedelic rock, and Creole roots. Gris-Gris Gumbo Ya-Ya!

Silke Eberhard Trio

June 28 Innovation Series - Ironworks @ 9pm $25 + SC

"Her mastery of both instruments is impressive, but so is her take on music: it is fun, it is light-footed, rhythmically and structurally complex, emotional and technically superb." — Free-jazz

German saxophonist/clarinetist Silke Eberhard has an inclusive, far-reaching take on jazz performance that includes Ornette-influenced avant-bop and interdisciplinary work with theatre and dance artists. She has performed and/or recorded with Dave Burrell, Gerry Hemingway, Aki Takase, and Scotland's NeWt Trio, among many others. This sharp trio featuring bassist Jan Roder and Kay Lübke drums is uncommonly committed to celebrating and developing the traditions of free jazz. Supported by the Berlin Senate Cultural Affairs Department.

Kevin Elashuk Quartet

June 30 Roundhouse - Exhibition Hall @ 5:30pm Free

This great Vancouver-based quartet is loose and swinging, with sophisticated lyrical interplay and an organic, flowing post-bop pulse. Kevin Elashuk trumpet/flugelhorn has played with Tony Wilson, Peggy Lee, George Lewis, Campbell Ryga, and more. The band features Rod Murray trombone, Ken Lister bass, Hans Verhoeven drums.

Thomas Enhco Trio

See "Spotlight on French Jazz" page 58.

Kellylee Evans

June 23 Downtown Jazz - Georgia Stage @ 3:45pm Free

A HUGE talent, Kellylee Evans won a 2011 Juno Award for her gorgeous tribute to Nina Simone, and hasn't looked back! With great power and confidence in her "stunning crystalline voice" (JazzTimes) and a spellbinding flair for performance, she fronts a grooving quartet.

Lorraine Feather and Stephanie Trick

— Nouveau Stride

June 21 West Vancouver Memorial Library @ 7:30pm Free

Multiple Grammy-nominated vocalist and lyricist Lorraine Feather performs jazz classics from the trad era by the likes of Fats Waller, James P. Johnson, and Dick Hyman, with Stephanie Trick on grand piano. DownBeat Magazine has described Lorraine's work as "deliciously savvy," and the Jazz Times calls her "a lyrical Dorothy Parker." Lorraine was raised in Manhattan's close knit jazz community; her father was noted jazz writer Leonard Feather and Billie Holiday was her godmother.

Lee Fields & the Expressions

(Double Bill with Nick Waterhouse and his Tarots)

June 24 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $35+ SC

"The real deal" — Pitchfork

Sometimes called Soul Brother No. 2 for his emotive holler in the tradition of James Brown, singer Lee Fields has kept his brand of R&B pure and raw since cutting his teeth in the golden age of soul. Like Sharon Jones—who was discovered singing backups for Lee—Fields found new vitality and recognition by teaming up with a new crop of soul brothers in Brooklyn label Truth and Soul's 'house band', The Expressions (Budos Band, Daptones). Like Al Green and Sam Cooke, Lee is made from the perfect soul arithmetic of pain + joy = great, powerful music.

Four Eyes Trio

June 23 Jazz at Canada Place @ 4pm Free

A sophisticated yet highly playful trio, Cat Toren keys, Jen Hodge bass, and Jens Christiansen woodwinds have been performing together for a decade, building a strong musical bond and a fluid, fresh, modern style of jazz that includes influences from Ahmad Jamal to Brad Mehldau, Béla Fleck to the Beatles.

French American Peace Ensemble featuring François Tusques

See "Spotlight on French Jazz" page 58.

Tomas Fujiwara & the Hook Up

June 29 Innovation Series - Ironworks @ 9pm $25 + SC

This sleek ensemble led by the textural, orchestral swing drumming of Tomas Fujiwara (Taylor Ho Bynum) crafts "an updated take on the Miles Davis 1960's quintet idea" — (All About Jazz). Made up of leading lights in the new generation of New York creative musicians, it is certainly one of the most out-and-out entertaining modern jazz groups working today. Episodic compositions morph as they progress through enigmatic but evocative logic, always allowing for invigorating group improvisation. With Mary Halvorson ("the most impressive guitarist of her generation" — All About Jazz), Brian Settles tenor saxophone, Michael Formanek (Tim Berne) bass, Jonathan Finlayson ("an incisive and often surprising trumpeter" — New York Times).

Supported by Mid Atlantic Arts Foundation through US Artists International in partnership with the National Endowment of the Arts and the Andrew M. Mellon Foundation.

JUNE 29 Roundhouse (Tomas Fujiwara workshop) @ 4:30pm Free

JUNE 29 Roundhouse (Mary Halvorson workshop) @ 3pm Free

Larry Goldings/Peter Bernstein/Bill Stewart

June 22 Downtown Jazz - Robson Stage @ 3pm Free

Called "the best organ trio of the last decade" by the New York Times, these heavy hitters have recorded eight albums and one DVD together, all of which display their distinctive sound, whether exploring the depths of jazz standards or playing their original compositions. You're going to dig this super group's energy, creativity, and bluesy, burning grooves. With Larry Goldings (Maceo Parker, Jack DeJohnette) Hammond organ, Peter Bernstein (Sonny Rollins, Diana Krall) guitar, Bill Stewart (Pat Metheny, John Scofield) drums.

Ayelet Rose Gottlieb & Anat Fort

June 30 Roundhouse Performance Centre @ 1:30pm $5

Called "a commanding vocalist" by the New York Times, Ayelet Rose Gottlieb is a regular John Zorn collaborator. In this duo with fellow Israeli, ECM recording artist Anat Fort piano, the compelling, wildly-talented pair blend French Chanson, avant-jazz, Jewish and Middle-Eastern traditions, and improvisations ranging from breathy delicateness to uncompromising sonic exploration.

JUNE 28 Tom Lee Music Hall (Ayelet Rose Gottlieb & Anat Fort workshop) @ 1pm Free

Thanks to Consulate General of Israel — Toronto and Western Canada, Israel's Office of Cultural Affairs.

Gordon Grdina Trio with Colin Stetson

June 22 Innovation Series - Ironworks Late Night @ 11:30pm $12

One of Vancouver's fiery, cutting-edge trios is joined by solo/ saxophone artist Colin Stetson for a late night collaboration of expansive and thrilling creative power. Vancouver guitarist/oud player Grdina blends jazz, free improvisation, rock, and Arabic music. His trio featuring Tommy Babin bass and Kenton Loewen drums boasts a broad range of influences, from punk and rock to Albert Ayler and Jimmy Giuffrè. A highly sought-after sideman (Bon Iver, Belle Orchestre), Polaris Prize runner-up Colin Stetson is a force of nature who combines extended techniques and circular breathing with enthralling structures and stunning emotional depth.

Gordon Grdina's Haram (with Red Baraat)

June 28 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $35 + SC

A spellbinding, passionate melding of "left-of-center mannerisms with hardcore jazz soloing and vocals; then, it's all layered atop a bed of percussive, Middle Eastern musical ideals" — All About Jazz. This splendid culture-mashing juggernaut is led by Gordon Grdina (Dan Mangan) on Iraqi oud, with JP Carter trumpet, Jesse Zubot violin, Kenton Loewen drums, Tommy Babin bass, Emad Armouh vocals, François Houle clarinet, Chris Kelly saxophone, Tim Gerwig, Liam MacDonald percussion.

JUNE 22 Innovation Series — Ironworks Late Night (Gordon Grdina Trio with Colin Stetson) @ 11:30pm $12

Jadyn Guillou Quintet

June 22 Downtown Jazz - Georgia Stage @ 12:30pm Free

"BC has produced another rising star, someone perhaps to follow in the footsteps of international jazz artist Diana Krall" — Review Vancouver

CBC Galaxie Rising Star Award-winner Jadyn Guillou brings her velvety voice and cosmopolitan, smoky cool to singular interpretations of enduring classics, modern gems, and her own sinuous originals.

Gypsophilia

June 23 Downtown Jazz - Robson Stage @ 6:45pm Free

Born of a shared love of Django Reinhardt, Halifax septet Gypsophilia's frenzied swing and rousing sing-alongs are chock-full of humour, showmanship, and great chops! Featuring the triple guitar threat of Alec Frith, Nick Wilkinson and Ross Burns, Sageev Oore keyboards, Matt Myer trumpet, Adam Fine bass, Gina Burgess violin.

Thanks to Canada Council for the Arts.

Rich Halley 4 (with David Murray Infinity Quartet featuring Macy Gray)

June 27 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $50/45 + SC

"No saxophonist out there is playing with more fire, muscle, sheer guts or wild abandon than Halley" — All About Jazz Oregon-based tenor saxophonist Rich Halley composes music of engaging, uncompromising beauty and improvises with great lyrical intensity. With Michael Vlatkovich trombone, Carson Halley drums, and Vancouver bassist Clyde Reed.

Heart Song Art Song: Kate Hammett-Vaughan and Jillian Lebeck

June 25 Ironworks Afternoon @ 5pm Free

Musical magic from two eclectic Vancouver jazz artists. Juno nominated vocalist Kate Hammett-Vaughan sings standards, free jazz, art songs and pop gems. Pianist/vocalist Jillian Lebeck's sweet and tuneful voice contrasts with her formidable grasp of the piano's expressive possibilities. Beatles, Kurt Weill, Joni, Beach Boys, Stevie Wonder..

Kate Hammett-Vaughan, Bill Coon and Adam Thomas

June 28 Jazz at Canada Place @ 4pm Free

"Hammett-Vaughan is one of the best jazz singers in Canada, or anywhere for that matter" — Edmonton Journal

Vocalist Kate Hammett-Vaughan's swinging, free-spirited delivery blends perfectly with Bill Coon's sophisticated, silky, and melodic guitar, and the prodigious talents of in-demand bassist/vocalist Adam Thomas.

Herbie Hancock

June 30 Queen Elizabeth Theatre @ 8pm $78/73/68
+ SC

Herbie Hancock is an icon of modern music. Throughout his illustrious career, he has transcended genres while maintaining his unmistakable voice. Acclaimed as a legendary pianist and composer, Hancock has been an integral part of every jazz movement since the 60's. With the Miles Davis Quintet, he was a member of one of the most influential bands in the history of music. His recordings during the 70's combined electric jazz with funk and rock sounds in an innovative style that continues to influence contemporary music. In the 80's, "Rockit" and "Future Shock" marked Hancock's foray into electronic dance music and included several chart-topping hits. The master musician remains active in both the electronic pop and acoustic jazz worlds. Hancock has received an Academy Award for his Round Midnight film score and 14 Grammy Awards including two for his globally collaborative CD The Imagine Project. Many of his compositions, including "Watermelon Man," "Maiden Voyage," and "Chameleon," are modern standards that have had a profound effect on all styles of music. With Lionel Loueke guitar, James Genus bass, Jonathon Pinson drums.

Alicia Hansen/Ben Brown Duo with special guest David Sikula

June 29 Performance Works @ 1:30 pm Free

Classically informed and experimental, with a delicious ethereal pop twist, pianist/vocalist Alicia Hansen's fearless duo with rising star and highly sensitive drummer Ben Brown (Pugs and Crows Band) is endlessly creative and thrilling. They're joined for this special performance by the arching lyricism of guitarist David Sikula (Inhabitants).

The Harpoonist & the Axe Murderer (with BETTYE LAVETTE)

June 22 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $40 + SC

For fans of the Black Keys and the White Stripes, as well as the roots of blues (Robert Johnson, Muddy Waters), this two-headed stomp

JUNE 23 Downtown Jazz – Georgia Stage @ 7:30pm Free (joined by full band lineup)

Ben Henriques Trio

June 27 Jazz at Canada Place @ 4pm Free

Saxophonist Ben Henriques has been making a name for himself in the jazz scenes of Montreal and Vancouver. His clear, emotive tone leads a lively and daring band through swing, bebop, and some surprising rock-tinged escapades! Their aptly named 2013 album "Captain Awesome" is an adventurous thrill ride.

Daniel Hersog Trio

June 24 Jazz at Canada Place @ 4pm Free

Daniel Hersog is quickly establishing himself as an exciting young trumpet player and composer on the Vancouver jazz scene. Steeped in the rich hard-bop tradition, this swinging group navigates Daniel's original music with ease and wit. With Jennifer Hodge bass, Andrew Rasmussen keyboards.

Maria Ho Trio

June 27 Granville Island - Public Market Stage @ Noon Free

Performing a breezy mix of jazz standards, Latin sambas, and bossa nova, Vancouver vocalist Maria Ho has a distinctive voice and an energetic stage presence. Inspired by Ella Fitzgerald, Carmen McRae, Shirley Horn, and Stevie Wonder, she can swing a tune brightly or capture your heart with a powerful ballad.

Jen Hodge's All Stars

July 1 Granville Island - Ron Basford Park Stage @ Noon Free

Vancouver bassist Jennifer Hodge leads this pack of talented young musicians with a passion for playing raucous, sassy jazz that's reminiscent of the prohibition era. Think 20's, 30's, Jelly Roll Morton, Bix Beiderbecke, Bob Wills, speakeasies, road-houses, underground parties... you get the idea. Guaranteed to be great fun!

Hornography

June 30 David Lam Park Stage @ 5:15pm Free

Hornography is a nine-piece horn driven musical groovathon. The five-piece horn section, two drummers, electric bass and guitar plays original music composed by saxophonist Clinton Swanson. Inspired by the sounds of world beat and funk artists such as Fela and Maceo Parker, Hornography delivers worldly grooves, powerhouse horn arrangements, and creative improv.

Mazacote

June 29 David Lam Park Stage @ 3:30pm Free

Vancouver-based Mazacote is a hard hitting six-piece Latin dance band that plays horn-driven salsa dura and beats from Colombia, Puerto Rico and Cuba. In 2012, the group released its debut EP Salsa Dura. Featuring powerful vocals combined with driving Afro-Cuban percussion and brassy mambos, the album comes out swinging hard while introducing their son-inspired take on salsa's best grooves.

Lisa Cay Miller Quartet – SOS Songs

June 30 Roundhouse Performance Centre @ 5pm $5

Pianist/composer Miller leads a band of virtuosos and skilled interpreters of the jazz idiom who tap deep into her complex musical structures, giving them vibrant life. The SOS songs are about beauty, anger, strength, and healing in the face of trauma. They are dedicated to amazing and enduring human spirits. With Dave Robbins drums, Jodi Proznick bass, Jon Bentley tenor saxophone.

Sharon Minemoto Quartet

July 1 Granville Island - Performance Works @ Noon Free

Vancouver-based pianist Sharon Minemoto is a swinging, sensitive pianist with a highly melodic style and a composer of some very hip original music. The quartet will pay tribute to late saxophonist/pianist Ross Taggart who passed away in early January. 45 year-old Taggart was an enormous part of the Vancouver jazz scene. The band will celebrate Taggart's life through music written for him as well as some of his last compositions. With Adam Thomas bass, Jon Bentley tenor sax, Bernie Arai drums.

Monk's Music

June 23 Downtown Jazz – Robson Stage @ 3pm Free

Trailblazing genius Thelonious Monk forever changed the direction of music with his unorthodox compositions and idiosyncratic piano work. This swinging tribute is led by artful, dynamic drummer Dan Gaucher (October Trio), and features sought-after Vancouver creative jazz musicians Evan Arntzen saxophone, Kevin Elashuk trumpet, David Sikula guitar, James Meger bass.

David Murray Infinity Quartet featuring Macy Gray (with Rich Halley 4)

June 27 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $50/45 + SC

Beloved R&B vocalist Macy Gray has an unmistakably smoky, almost gritty tone, and incomparable stage presence. She's been wearing her heart on her sleeve and wowing audiences since her 1999 Grammy Award-winning single, "I Try". Grammy-winning tenor saxophonist and World Saxophone Quartet co-founder David Murray has recorded over 130 albums and worked with Butch Morris, Jerry Garcia, and Elvin Jones. His dizzying range prompted Village Voice to name him "Musician of the Decade" for the 1980s, and he hasn't stopped cookin'! This sophisticated, broadly emotional mix of jazz and blues is not to be missed.

Youn Sun Nah & Ulf Wakenius Duo

June 25 Performance Works @ 7:30pm $35 + SC

Buoyant, bubbling interplay between the clear, dynamic, sometimes-otherworldly voice of Korean chanteuse Youn Sun Nah ("a tantalizing cross between Björk and Melody Gardot" – All About Jazz), and the dazzling six-string fire of Swedish guitarist Ulf Wakenius (Oscar Peterson, Herbie Hancock). Often ranging from playful gypsy jazz to soaring operatic power in a single song, these virtuosos also deliver simple, reflective moments with great intimacy and beauty. The duo's lively and soulful conversations include everything from Tom Waits to Bossa Nova. Pin drop moments like their affecting version of "Shenandoah" might have you reaching for a tissue, while their fiery musical chemistry will have your heart soaring.

Thanks to Arts Council Korea, KDB Financial Group.

Tyson Naylor Trio (with Esperanza Spalding Radio Music Society)

June 23 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $50/45 + SC

An Evening with Gregory Porter

June 24 Performance Works @ 7:30pm $35 + SC

"One of the greatest new jazz singers on earth" — Jools Holland
Equal parts Bill Withers and Nat King Cole, Gregory Porter can moan a soulful blues and flit through a playful, stomping jazz number with equal power. With his smooth and smoky baritone, Porter continues the traditions of soul and jazz artists of the past, but sets himself apart from mere revivalists with his exceptional song-writing. "Majestically affecting" (the Guardian), his articulate lyrics and affecting melodies are sincere, romantic, and deeply grooving. With Chip Crawford piano, Aaron James bass, Emanuel Harrold drums, and blazing saxophonist Yosuke Sato.

Pugs and Crows and Tony Wilson

June 21 Performance Works @ 1:30pm Free

2010 Galaxie Rising Star Award winners and 2013 Juno Award nominee Pugs and Crows incorporates influences from tango to John Zorn. For this special performance, West Coast guitar legend Tony Wilson lends his considerable talents to the band's dramatic, cinematic sound and gritty elegance. Meredith Bates violin, Cat Toren piano, Cole Schmidt guitar, Russell Scholberg, bass, Ben Brown drums.

Quetango Quartet

June 30 Presentation House @ 8pm $20/18 + SC

Quebec quartet Quetango embraces the tradition of tango, adding elements of contemporary jazz, chamber music and even some 70's feel progressive rock. Highly original, the group includes a classically trained cellist from Argentina, Daniel Finzi, along with jazz guitarist Jonathan Hains, double bassist Frédéric Vermette and percussionist Simon Boudreault. Quetango released Postango in 2007 and Musica Urbana earlier this year.

The group performed at the world's most prestigious tango festival – Tango Buenos Aires, Festival y Mundial, in 2011.

Reach for the Sky with Debra-Jean Creelman

June 22 Downtown Jazz - Robson Stage @ Noon Free

Talismanic West Coast guitarist Tony Wilson is at it again. Here's a new group of local heroes featuring vocalist Debra-Jean Creelman. Songs of joy and peace. Stories of tears and rage. With Jeremy Holmes bass, Scott Smith guitar/pedal steel, Liam MacDonald drums.

Red Baraat (with Gordon Grdina's Haram)

June 28 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $35 + SC

Formed in 2008, Red Baraat rocketed to #1 on both the iTunes and Billboard World Music Charts with their 2013 album Shruggy Ji, a genre-smashing mix of hard driving bhangra rhythms with jazz, funk, and hip-hop. Led by Sunny Jain's dhol (traditional Punjabi drum), the ethnically diverse Brooklyn-based 8-piece's unique instrumentation (sousaphone, bass trumpet, etc) is a riotous drums and horns party. Picking up tremendous momentum with 200 shows a year, Red Baraat have brought their infectious party vibe everywhere from the Isle of Wight to the White House. Here's a fiery, sweaty, hedonistic celebration that'll have you moving all your parts, Vancouver!

John Reischman + John Miller

June 23 Presentation House Theatre @ 8pm $18/16 + SC

Vancouverite Reischman is a top-ranked acoustic mandolin player, and is also the front man for the bluegrass band The Jaybirds. Seattle-based Miller is a renowned acoustic guitarist with a rhythmic finger-style playing that complements Reischman's melodies. Celebrating classic standard and contemporary original compositions, the duo specializes in Latin jazz with choros, sambas, bossa novas, boleros and waltzes, adding elements of bebop and Celtic influences. Reischman + Miller have performed across Canada, and internationally, in England, Japan as well as the United States, with two albums, The Singing Moon and Bumpy Road, and a new release, Road Trip.

Ribcage Trio

July 1 Granville Island - Railspur District Stage @ 5:30pm Free

Vancouver guitarist Jon Roper leads this trio that explores the melodic landscape of old school funk, indie rock, and hangman blues, never letting go of the good groove. Influenced by John Scofield's music and by the epic anthems of UK rock, the music ebbs and flows with a heavy backbeat.

Dave Robbins Electric Band (with John Scofield Überjam Band)

June 25 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $35 + SC

Inspired by the prog/jazz/rock of Chick Corea's Return to Forever, this forward-thinking ensemble is an exhilarating showcase for top-flight Canadian drummer, Dave Robbins (Hugh Fraser, Denzal Sinclair) and his smoking quintet. With Evan Arntzen (October Trio) saxophone, Juno Award-winning keyboardist Hugh Fraser, Kerry Galloway bass, Jared Burrows guitar.

Robots on Fire

June 29 Roundhouse Performance Centre @ 3:15pm $5

Mutant meta-jazz, skronk, and some serious Peter Brötzmann-meets-Ornette Coleman boundary-stretching excitement! Founded by tenor saxophonist Darren Williams and bassist Dave Chokroun, and featuring Guenter Schulz guitar, Kevin Romain drums, Jonathon Wilcke alto saxophone, the group has collaborated with idiosyncratic trailblazers Eugene Chadbourne, Han Bennink, and Mats Gustafsson.

Quincy Jones Presents:

Alfredo Rodriguez Trio

June 29 Performance Works @ 7:30pm $35 + SC

"One of the most prolific and gifted jazz pianists of the 21st century." — Quincy Jones

Cuban expatriate Alfredo Rodriguez's music has links to his home country that go far beyond nostalgia, while tipping a cap to American piano role models like Bud Powell, Thelonious Monk, and his improv inspiration, Keith Jarrett. His dazzling technique goes to that next level of artistry through his tremendous, unteachable feel and deep emotional investment. The young phenom's omnivorous musical hunger and incandescent charisma has dazzled on collaborations with legends like Quincy Jones and Chick Corea. With Peter Slavov bass, Henry Cole drums.

Kurt Rosenwinkel New Quartet

June 26 Performance Works @ 7:30pm $35 + SC

"[Compositions] are grounded in deep groove and willfully uncomplicated melody, and the band unpacks them with granite conviction." — New York Times
On his acclaimed CD Star Of Jupiter, influential guitarist Kurt Rosenwinkel creates kinetic melodies and otherworldly sonic textures through a curious blend of post-bop, 20th century minimalism, and progressive rock. His improbably precise vocalizations on top of engaging, unconventional melodies and incandescent soloing lead a hot new band through insistent odd-meter grooves and thrilling vamps. With Aaron Parks (Terence Blanchard, Joshua Redman) piano, Eric Revis (Ken Vandermark, Branford Marsalis) bass, Justin Faulkner (Branford Marsalis) drums.

Round Midnight

June 17 Vancity Theatre @ 7pm $12/$11/$9

Here's a jazz film directed by Bertrand Tavernier that has saxophonist Dexter Gordon portraying Dale Turner, an American expatriate trying to shake his demons in 1959 Paris. 14-time Grammy winning pianist Herbie Hancock won an Academy Award for scoring the film in which he also appeared as an actor. Jazz giants Bobby Hutcherson, John McLaughlin and Billy Higgins also appear in the production.

Sabota (with Nosaj Thing)

Co-presented with NEW FORMS 13

June 27 Venue @ 9pm Doors 8pm $20 + SC

The name Sabota comes from an infamous area in southern Canada where kids congregate late at night. Both Max Ulis and Robbie Slade have (somewhat indirect) roots there, so it was a fitting name for the collaboration as their sound gears towards the deeper night or sunrise.

Santa Lucia

June 30 David Lam Park Stage @ 1:45pm Free

"Santa Lucia left the syrup at home and only brought the hot sauce." — The Province

Brassy, Santana-esque Latin rock, West Coast funk and your sweaty dance moves! Led by Nicaraguan-born, Vancouver-based German Cantillo vocals/guitar, with Byron Russell, Dan Shook saxophone, Chiko Misomali drums, Aranildo Lima bass, Jeremy Vint trumpet, Kevin Tang trombone, Rafael Cajl, Luis Fernando Lopez percussion.

Tim Sars Band

June 24 Granville Island - Public Market Stage @ Noon Free

Saxophonist about town Tim Sars has thrilled Vancouver audiences for years with his considerable charm and top notch chops. From the slamming Afro-funk of Miami Device to the gleefully inclusive fun of the Carnival Band, he's a treasure! His happening trio features Brendan Krieg drums, Winston Minkler bass.

The John Scofield Überjam Band

Featuring Andy Hass, Avi Bortnick, Tony Mason (with Dave Robbins Electric Band)

June 25 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $35 + SC

"Scofield obliterates distinctions. His improvisations are so brilliantly constructed and emotionally searing that one quickly forgets what idiom he is — or isn't — working in" — Chicago Tribune

A master of post-bop and soul-edged jazz-rock, guitarist John Scofield's Überjam project brings elements of drum n bass, world beat, electronica and fusion to a jam-ready group of masterful co-conspirators. One of the top three jazz guitarists on the planet, his distinctive, rock-edged tone has been heard on collaborations with Charles Mingus, Pat Metheny, and on career-making early 80's albums with Miles Davis.

Jennifer Scott's Brasileira

June 22 Downtown Jazz - Robson Stage @ 5:00pm Free

Junos and Jessie-nominated vocalist Jennifer Scott is "simply one of the most positive forces in music today" (Hugh Fraser). Brasileira captures the verve and spirit of Brazilian jazz greats while adding piquant originals to the mix. With Rene Worst bass, Daryl Jahnke guitar, Cory Weeds saxophone, Nino DiPasquale drums, Liam MacDonald percussion.

Steve Smith's ROLL

June 21 Granville Island - Public Market Stage @ Noon Free

Vancouver bassist Steve Smith (Richie Beirach, Billy Hart, Clarence Penn) is an active member of our jazz community and a prolific composer. This new project features Smith's original music as he plays with two of our city's best — guitarist David Sikula and drummer Joe Poole.

Carmen Souza

June 22 Performance Works @ 7:30pm $35 + SC

Portuguese-born of Cape Verde descent, guitarist/vocalist Carmen Souza is a delight for the mind and spirit. Mixing traditional West African rhythms with contemporary jazz and Brazilian traditions, she creates "something altogether new and startling" (Songlines UK). Singing in the creole dialect of Cape Verde, her voice is idiosyncratic — almost mischievous in the most good-natured way — as it dances and leaps about, joyfully colouring what David Sylvain calls "world soul music for the 21st century." There's palpable chemistry between Souza and her band, which features longtime producer, mentor, collaborator and co-composer Theo Pas'cal bass, Jonathan Idiagbonya piano and Mauricio Zottarelli drums.

Esperanza Spalding Radio Music Society
(with Tyson Naylor Trio)
June 23 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $50/45 + SC

"Spalding is something of a smoldering cross between Jaco Pastorius and an Adele." — Premier Guitar
Bassist/vocalist/composer Esperanza Spalding is on a roll! In the last several years she has captured a 2011 Grammy Award for Best New Artist (the first jazz artist to do so) edging out Justin Bieber, Drake and others; played with Prince, Paul Simon and Stevie Wonder; and jammed with jazz heroes Wayne Shorter, Herbie Hancock and Pat Metheny. A young trailblazing musician who has flirted with Afro-Cuban rhythms, Brazilian bossa and string-laden chamber jazz, her latest project the 12-piece Radio Music Society blends jazz (Wayne Shorter's 'Endangered Species' with her original lyrics), funk and soul (Stevie Wonder's 'I Can't Help It') into an exhilarating ride for the listener. "She's incredible. She doesn't make music. She makes magic." — Jon Stewart, The Daily Show

The Spiritual Unity Quartet

July 1 Performance Works @ 5:45pm Free

The Spiritual Unity Quartet pays homage to the music and spirit of saxophonist Albert Ayler, one of the founding fathers of the "Free Jazz" movement of the 1960's. Performing Ayler's compositions, the group plays with passion, freedom and conviction. With Bruce Freedman saxophones, Bill Clark trumpet, James Meger bass, Joel Lower drums.

Colin Stetson
(with Yamantaka//Sonic Titan)
June 23 Venue Doors 8pm Show 9pm $25 + SC

A must-see! Saxophonist and Polaris Prize runner-up Colin Stetson's exhilarating approach to performance simultaneously blends extended technique and circular breathing to create layered, polyphonic sonic wonders. A sought-after side player for Arcade Fire and Tom Waits, Colin Stetson's fierce dedication to pushing the boundaries of his craft has seen his unique compositional voice rise above traditional roles of reed players and command centre stage. His first-time duo collaboration with fellow sax player Mats Gustafsson at the 2011 Festival was one for the ages and was released on the Rune Grammofon imprint.

JUNE 22 Innovation Series - Ironworks Late Night (Gordian Grdina Trio with Colin Stetson) @ 11:30pm $12

John Stowell - Michael Zilber Quartet

June 23 Downtown Jazz - Georgia Stage @ 12:30pm Free

Brainy, lyrical post bop masters! Guitarist John Stowell "seems to pull arching motifs out of thin air, eschewing clichés while maintaining a swinging essence" (All About Jazz). Jazz legend Dave Liebman called Vancouver-born, Bay Area-based saxophonist Michael Zilber "one of the best composers and players around anywhere, period!" With Jeff Johnson bass, Bernie Arai drums.

Tarab

June 28 Granville Island - Public Market Stage @ Noon Free

Vancouver-based Tarab is a fresh, modern take on Egyptian, Arabian, Lebanese and other Middle Eastern popular music, with daring rock edges. Blending proud traditions with progressive-minded creative musicians, Tarab's mesmerizing sound is hypnotic and virtuosic. With Hazem Matar electric oud/ vocals, Curtis Andrews drums/vocals, Greg Valou bass/vocals.

TD High School Jazz Intensive with Tomeka Reid

June 30 David Lam Park Stage @ Noon Free

The culmination of an exciting and focused nine day artistic residency for high school students led by conductor Tomeka Reid, an acclaimed Chicago-based jazz cellist/composer. This performance gives the kids a chance to show off their chops, and gives all of us a chance to see some rising musical stars!

JUNE 29 Tom Lee Music Hall (TDHSJ) Open Rehearsal with Tomeka Reid @ 1pm Free

Sibel Thrasher and Friends

July 1 Granville Island - Railspur District Stage @ 8pm Free

Unbelievably soulful, undeniably sultry, and irresistibly engaging! BC Entertainment Hall of Fame vocalist Sibel Thrasher has collaborated with Long John Baldry, Donna Summer, and the Platters, and her spiritual brand of R&B, blues and soul is a stunning treat not to be missed.

Cat Toren Trio

June 28 Performance Works @ 1:30pm Free

Pianist Cat Toren animates the jazz scenes of both Vancouver and New York. An integral member of the Juno-nominated Pugs and Crows, the Galaxie Rising Star Award winner also leads thoughtful, expansive bands in both cities. Her stellar rhythm section features Dan Gaucher drums, Tommy Babin bass.

June 23 Performance Works @ 7:30pm & 10pm $35 + SC

The Hendrix of the Sahara! Malinese guitar virtuoso Vieux Farka Touré's live show is a tour de force of dusty desert rock, amped-up blues, sinuous West African grooves, and the unstoppable charisma, heavens-searching vocals and agile melodies of Farka Touré. An emerging figure on the world music scene, he has already collaborated with Dave Matthews, John Scofield, and even his father, the legendary Afro-blues man Ali Farka Touré, with whom he recorded shortly before his father's death in 2006. Vieux's music continues the proud lineage of his father, while adding other African traditions, rock, and Latin influences. With Mamadou Sidibe bass/vocals, Souley Kane drums, Aly Magassa guitar/vocals.

Marianne Trudel - TRIFOLIA

June 24 Performance Works @ 1:30pm Free

Taking their name from the three-leaved plant, this unified Montreal trio of sensitive, earthy musicians interacts gorgeously on shared compositions and organic improvisations. Featuring the expansive and emotional Marianne Trudel piano/voice, Étienne Lafrance's searching bass, and the highly creative, mixed-bag percussion of Patrick Graham.

Thanks to Canada Council for the Arts.

The Unsupervised

June 29 Roundhouse - Exhibition Hall @ 5:30pm Free

Guitarist/composer Jeff Younger leads a wildly inventive modern jazz quintet through intertwining melodic adventures and pulsing rhythm workouts. With a potent blend of Scandinavian-style improv à la Atomic, and the edgy, smoky cool of the New York Downtown scene, this is an artful and engaging band on the rise.

Peter Van Huffel's GORILLA MASK

June 29 Roundhouse Performance Centre @ 5pm $5

Canadian ex-pat alto saxophonist Peter Van Huffel leads this hard-slammng rock/free jazz Berlin trio. All About Jazz calls Van Huffel "one of the most intense performers" on the sax, and he brings visceral and intellectual fire to the gritty avant power trio's heavy rhythms. With Roland Fidezius bass/noise, Rudi Fischerlehner drums.

Thanks to Canada Council for the Arts, Goethe Institute.

JUNE 30 Roundhouse (Peter Van Huffel's GORILLA MASK workshop) @ 1:30pm Free

V. Vecker Ensemble

June 28 Innovation Series – Ironworks Late Night @ 11:30pm $12 + SC

"A mind-blowing, Middle Eastern-tinged, meandering combo of psych rock, jazz and noise" – Vancouver Sun
An assemblage of members from groups of diverse backgrounds and genres, the V. Vecker Ensemble combines the eclectic tastes and abilities of members of bands such as Von Bingen, Nu Sensae, Cowards, Basketball and Aquanaut. The compositions that are created here are at the crossroads where psychedelia, minimal composition, free jazz and serial music collide. This ferocious ensemble is far greater than the sum of its parts. V. Vecker organ, Brody McKnight guitar, Daniel Presnell guitar, David Rogers, Corey Woolger percussion, Liam Butler, Andrea Lukic bass.

Christian Wallumrød Ensemble

June 26 Innovation Series - Ironworks @ 9pm $25 + SC

A beguiling treat for the ears! This astounding chamber group creates an expansive, almost mystical music through the compositions of Norwegian keyboardist and ECM artist Christian Wallumrød. One of the leading young Norwegian creative musicians, Wallumrød's "hymnal, luminously beautiful music" (The Guardian) evokes contemporary classical composers such as Morton Feldman and John Cage, Norwegian folk traditions, and cinematic sound sculpture. "The various traditions are all treated with respect, even when they're deliciously subverted." — (Downbeat). With Gjermund Larsen violin/viola/hardanger fiddle, Eivind Lønning trumpet, Tove Törnigren cello, Espen Reinertsen tenor sax, Per Oddvar Johansen drums/vibes. Thanks to Arts Council Norway (Kulturrådet), Music Norway, Norsk Jazz Forum.

David Ward

June 22 Downtown Jazz - Georgia Stage @ 5:15pm Free

Watch out for David Ward! The gifted, passionate and soulful singer/songwriter fronts a kicking band that's oozing with confidence. R&B, blues, folk, and beyond. "Imagine Jeff Buckley's untethered falsetto with Stevie Wonder's warm, grainy tenor. . . David Ward has mastered both, plus all points between. A versatile and ambitious talent." — UNCUT

Nick Waterhouse and his Tarots (Double Bill with Lee Fields & the Expressions)

June 24 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $35 + SC

"One of music's most refreshingly rough-around-the-edges soul men." — NPR
You can almost hear the surface noise from an old 45rpm record in the heart and soul of guitarist/vocalist Nick Waterhouse. This rising star can woo you with the sweetness of reverb-drenched 50's pop, but it's his ability to channel the unvarnished, swaggering volatility of early R&B, blues, and soul that gets heart pumping and the body shaking! His vintage looks and sound draw comparisons to modern revivalists like Mayer Hawthorne and the Daptones family, but Waterhouse adds some West Coast psyche and garage rock grit to his singularly rousing R&B.

Taj Weekes & Adowa

June 30 David Lam Park Stage @ 7pm Free

Originally hailing from St. Lucia, New York-based singer/guitarist Taj Weekes leads a pan-Caribbean band of all-stars from Dominica, Trinidad, Barbados, and Jamaica through consciousness-raising, poetic, politically-engaged and deliciously dubby roots reggae. Radss Desiree (Dominica) bass; Adoni Xavier (Trinidad) guitar/vocals, John Hewitt (Barbados) keyboards/vocals, and Cornel Marshall (Jamaica) drums/vocals.

Scott White 4tet

June 23 Downtown Jazz - Robson Stage @ 1:30pm Free

Canadian bassist Scott White has been active in the fertile Berlin music scene for several years, but also maintains great projects back at home. Buzzing with chemistry and creative conceptual ensemble playing, the free jazz, rock, world, and classically influenced quartet features Monik Nordine saxophone, Alfons Fear trumpet, Kelby MacNayr drums.

Wintermitts

June 22 Downtown Jazz - Georgia Stage @ 3:45pm Free

Wintermitts is a genre bending six-piece from Vancouver. They sing in French and English. They rock out on trumpets and accordions. They waltz when they need to and they're absorbing (and comforting) as winter mittens. The latest release, Oceans is dazzling orchestral pop.

Royal Wood

June 29 David Lam Park Stage @ 7pm Free

2013 Juno-nominee Royal Wood has been getting lots of love on the airwaves, in the press, and among other great songwriters. And with good reason: beguiling melodies and upbeat pop-rock grooves make his latest batch of songs instant classics! Toronto-based Wood's beautifully crafted, deeply sensitive tunes (Ron Sexsmith meets The Kinks) will stick in your head... perhaps forever!

Yamantaka // Sonic Titan (with Colin Stetson)

June 23 Venue Doors 8pm, Show 9pm $25 + SC

"Yamantaka//Sonic Titan are one of the most exciting bands on the planet." — NOW Magazine

Leaders of the new Canadian vanguard, Polaris Prize shortlisters YT//ST are next-level art-rockers who negotiate cultural dynamics (founders Alaska B and Ruby Kato Attwood share Asian-Canadian heritage) through hypnotic soundscapes, noise, heavy psyche-rock, performance art, and elaborate staging in giant monochrome paper sets. Focused, yet thrillingly transcendent, theirs is a dazzling hybrid art they call "Noh-wave" that blends appropriated styles of Noh, Chinese Opera, Japanese and First Nations mythology, psychedelia, and rock operatics into a sensory feast of sights and sounds.

Quincy Jones Presents:

Nikki Yanofsky

June 29 The Vogue Theatre @ 9pm $45/40 + SC

This Montreal-born vocalist is a 19-year old musical prodigy whose debut release, Ella... of Thee I Swing, went Gold in Canada and won her two Juno Award nominations. Her second album, Nikki, also certified Gold and debuted at Number 1 on the U.S. Billboard New Artist chart. At the 2010 Vancouver Winter Olympics, a TV audience of 3.5 billion people heard her soaring rendition of our national anthem. Her single from Nikki, "I Believe", was the official theme of the Olympics and certified four times Platinum. She's collaborated with Quincy Jones, WyCLEf Jean and Herbie Hancock while performing songs by Ella Fitzgerald, Ron Sexsmith, Feist and Jesse Harris.

Yuji Trio

June 26 Jazz at Canada Place @ 4pm Free

Led by guitarist/songwriter Yuji Nakajima, this trio combines their interpretations of a wide variety of Brazilian music with delicate harmonies, a cornucopia of Latin numbers and vibrant original compositions. With Alex Kelley bass, Liam MacDonald percussion.

Rafael Zaldivar Trio

July 1 Performance Works @ 7:30pm Free

"Zaldivar's compositions are characterized by structural and rhythmic complexity, balanced by a strong sense of harmony and depth." — (Jazz Times)

Hot Montreal-based jazz pianist Rafael Zaldivar has won numerous awards including Radio-Canada's Jazz Revelation of the Year award for 2010. Mixing incendiary, swinging rhythms, sensational chops, and influences from his native Cuba, Zaldivar is a must-see rising star of Canadian Jazz.

Thanks to Canada Council for the Arts.

Zapato Negro

June 22 Civic Plaza (14th & Lonsdale) @ 1pm Free

Vancouver-based Afro-Cuban jazz quintet Zapato Negro features musicians from Canada, Cuba, Venezuela and the USA, with Miguel Angel "Miguelito" Valdes trumpet/flugelhorn, Andre Carrasquero piano, Allan Johnston bass, Gilberto "Gilbert" Moreaux drums, Jack Duncan congas.

MADE in the UK

JAZZ CONCERT SERIES

Made in the UK returns for a second season with a mini concert series that will showcase a cross-section of the most exciting modern jazz from England and Scotland in a variety of indoor and outdoor venues. We hope this initiative will become an ongoing component of future festivals.

Presented with the generous support of the British Council and Creative Scotland.

Julian Arguelles Quartet

June 27 Innovation Series - Ironworks @ 9pm $25 + SC

"One is left almost speechless with admiration" — The Independent

Award-winning British saxophonist Julian Arguelles is one of Europe's finest musicians. A master of many idioms within the jazz sphere, Arguelles has a sound and style all his own. He's lent his burnished tone to the Frankfurt Radio Big Band and collaborated with an impressive array of artists like Tim Berne, Dave Holland, and Carla Bley. This is a rare chance for Vancouverites to hear what the Georgia Straight called "the refined roar of one of the young lions of British jazz."

With Kit Downes piano, Sam Lasserson bass, James Maddren drums.

JUNE 27 Tom Lee Music Hall (Julian Arguelles workshop) 1pm Free

Phronesis

June 22 Innovation Series - Ironworks @ 9pm $25 + SC

"One of the most exciting bands on the planet today!" — Jazzwise

Dizzying odd meter grooves, breakneck time changes, and breathtaking, top-of-the-rollercoaster group interplay are in abundance as Danish bassist Jasper Høiby's fierce and muscular playing leads this UK-based trio—which has been dubbed "the most exciting and imaginative piano trio since EST"—through fiendishly complex but accessible modern jazz. Høiby writes his intricate and athletic music without specific chords indicated allowing Ivo Neame's lyrical piano to colour the agile polyrhythmic ventures of the bandleader and drummer Anton Eger. This daring trio holds audiences captive in the exhilarating now.

Courtney Pine presents: HOUSE OF LEGENDS

June 27 Performance Works @ 7:30pm $35 + SC

Award-winning British saxophonist Courtney Pine can't be pinned down to any genre for very long. R&B, pop, electronica, funk, soul, and reggae have all felt his powerful, artful touch throughout a long international career (Geri Allen, Jeff Watts, Kenny Kirkland) that began to soar with his milestone 1987 debut as bandleader—Journey to the Urge Within—the first serious jazz album to crack the British Top 40. Jazzwise magazine named his latest—House of Legends—Album of the Year in 2012 calling it “joyous, brilliantly effective dance music” that blends charismatic jazz with calypso, ska, merengue, and more.

With Cameron Pierre guitar, Vidal Montgomery bass, Robert Fordjour drums, Samuel Dubois steel pan.

Soweto Kinch

June 22 Downtown Jazz - Georgia Stage 2:15pm Free

“An amazing display of verbal and musical virtuosity” — The Telegraph

Dynamic, award-winning British saxophonist/rapper Soweto Kinch compellingly blends next-level grooves, complex jazz melodicism, and poetic, conscious raps that live up to his degree from Oxford. A new concept album The Legend of Mike Smith is a multi-layered narrative filled with creativity. His lean, oh-so-funky rhythm section features Nick Jurd bass, Shaney Forbes drums.

Spotlight on French Jazz

We're excited to bring back our Spotlight on French Jazz program for a second year in partnership with the Consulate of France in Vancouver and Institut Français. Highlights will be found in the debut of two of the most brilliant young pianists on the French scene: Rémi Panossian and Thomas Encho. Special projects include the French American Peace Ensemble, and Didier Petit's East-West Ensemble both supported by the French-American Jazz Exchange, plus a Canada/France collaboration.

Presented with the generous support of the Institut Français and the Consulat Général de France à Vancouver.

Thomas Encho Trio

June 27 Performance Works @ 1:30pm Free

Only 24, pianist Thomas Encho has spent the last few years touring the globe and amassing awards and accolades in his native France and beyond. His fluid, lyrical compositions are classically influenced pieces buoyed by an eminently subtle trio featuring Canadian Chris Jennings bass and Belgian Nicolas Charlier drums.

French American Peace Ensemble featuring François Tusques

June 21 Innovation Series - Ironworks @ 9pm $25 + SC

The Parisian art scene of the late 60's was a welcoming time for international music collaborations. Fast forward to 2013—three renowned improvisers from the States will join the godfather of French free jazz, pianist François Tusques, to celebrate the cultural connections between France and America. Tusques recorded one of the first albums of wholly European improvised music—1965's "Free Jazz" and played with a Who's-Who of American jazz (Anthony Braxton, Don Cherry). He'll be joined by New Orleans saxophone giant Kidd Jordan (Ray Charles, World Saxophone Quartet) and the almost psychic duo of William Parker "the most consistently brilliant free jazz bassist of all time" (Village Voice) and Hamid Drake (Fred Anderson, Ken Vandermark) "one of the best percussionists in improvised music" (All Music).

INSTITUT
FRANÇAIS

Sylvain Kassap/Viviane Houle/Stefan Smulovitz/Didier Petit

June 23 Innovation Series – Ironworks Late Night @ 11:30pm $12

French masters Didier Petit cello/ voice and Sylvain Kassap bass clarinet are greeted by West Coast creative music stalwarts and longtime collaborators Viviane Houle voice and Stefan Smulovitz viola/ laptop for what is sure to be a brainy and beautiful night of audacious improvisation.

All four critically acclaimed artists have wide ranging backgrounds in jazz, contemporary classical, and sound sculpture that inform their boundary pushing melodic abstraction, tension, chaos, silence, and beauty. Unafraid to take daring risks in the pursuit of intense emotional expression, these charismatic improvisers also share a sense of playful absurdity and humour.

Rémi Panossian Trio

July 1 Performance Works @ 3:45 Free

"Revelation of the Year 2011" — TSF Jazz (France)

Don't miss this rare chance to see these young European jazz lions led by French pianist Rémi Panossian (Aldo Romano, Rick Margitza). The energetic and lyrical group performs in a whole range of styles and moods that blends jazz with elements of classical, rock and funk in a cinematic fashion reminiscent of Brad Mehldau and E.S.T. With Maxime Delporte bass, Frédéric Petitprez drums.

Didier Petit's East-West Ensemble

June 23 Innovation Series - Ironworks @ 9pm $25 + SC

Masterful musicians combine free jazz with Eastern traditions. French cellist Didier Petit "shoots forth intense spirals of overwhelming emotion" (Allmusic.com) while often vocalizing over his full, polyphonic bowing. Rova Saxophone Quartet co-founder Larry Ochs has a voracious appetite for cutting-edge 20th Century music, from Cage to Coltrane. Savvy Festival-goers will remember Xu Fengxia voice/guzheng from her compelling 2012 performance with Black Lotos (Lucas Niggli). Miya Masaoka koto is a multi-disciplinary artist who investigates the natural world through idiosyncratic perspectives on sound. A leader in the French improv scene since the Seventies, clarinetist Sylvain Kassap has played with Barre Phillips, Evan Parker, and more.
